The Bronx Concert Singers' 37th Annual Spring Concert

Bronx, NY – March 28, 2018 –Join The Bronx Concert Singers (BCS) and Music Director Robert René Galván on Sunday afternoon, May 6, 2018 at 4:30 pm, for their 37th Annual Spring Concert at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1891 McGraw Avenue, in Parkchester, Bronx, NY 10462. BCS pays tribute to 18th C. composer Franz Joseph Haydn whose 60 year career helped define and shape music of the Classical period.

The program's capstone is 'Lord Nelson' Mass in D minor (Hob. XXII:11); additional works include favorite selections from The Creation: chorus "Awake the Harp", tenor recitative "In Splendor Bright", and chorus "The Heavens are Telling". The 'Lord Nelson' Mass and The Creation are considered Haydn's greatest masterworks: bursting with melodic vigor, joyous reverence, and optimism, they remain audience favorites. Salve Regina in G minor (Hob. XXIIIb2) is a lyrical 3 part setting of the prayer "Hail, Holy Queen" to St. Mary as Queen of Heaven.

Haydn's personal and professional friendship with Mozart inspired Maestro Galván to program the Adagio from Mozart's Clarinet Concerto in A major KV622. Many will recognize the lush, lyric passages from the movie Out of Africa.

The Creation and 'Lord Nelson' Mass were written in 1797-1798, as Napoleon's French forces threatened Vienna and attacked in the Mediterranean and Egypt. Haydn had named the mass "Missa in angustiis" – Mass in troubled times. But, just as the Mass was to première in September, 1798, electrifying news arrived that English Admiral Lord Nelson's squadron had decisively defeated a larger French fleet in the Battle of the Nile. The mass was then nicknamed 'Lord Nelson', which stuck forever when Lord Nelson heard the mass during his visit to Vienna in 1800.

BCS's 37th Annual Spring Concert is supported, in part, by public funds from the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council and the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA); and, in part, from the Decentralization Program, a regrant program of the NYS Council on the Arts, with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the NYS Legislature, and administered by the BCA; and the support of local businesses, organizations and individuals who appreciate the arts.

The Bronx Concert Singers is a nonprofit volunteer concert chorus founded in the Parkchester section of the Bronx by people from all walks of life who love singing great choral music. The chorus presents primarily classical music concerts with professional vocal soloists and either orchestra or chamber ensemble, and has been a source of cultural enrichment in the community since 1981. BCS is the community chorus-in-residence at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. ###
